What Is The Lectionary?

The lectionary is a pre-selected collection of scriptural readings from the Bible that can be used for worship, study or other theological uses. Some congregations of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) use the Revised Common Lectionary which follows the liturgical year in a 3-year cycle and provides scriptural recommendations that compliment the current season of the liturgical year.

Liturgical Seasons and Colors

The colors of the lectionary are representative of the Liturgical seasons of western Christianity. These seasons are Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time (Time after Epiphany), Lent, Easter, Pentecost and Ordinary Time (Time after Pentecost). The liturgical year begins with Advent.

Each season is represented by a color:

Advent – Violet or Blue

Christmas – White

Ordinary Time – Green

Lent – Violet or Blue

Easter – White

Pentecost – Red

Although it is customarily observed, congregations in the Christian Church (Disciple of Christ) are not required to follow the liturgical seasons or the lectionary.

Here at Madison Heights Christian Church we do follow the Liturgical Seasons and Colors. Reverend Harris uses the Lectionary but also uses his original sermon ideas. This often depends on what is happening in the world, community and the life of the church.

We are currently in ordinary time, which follows Epiphany and our next upcoming season is Lent, which begins with Ash Wednesday on March 5th, watch for the purple paraments at the pulpit.

If you want to know more about our seasons or holy days please let us know.
