THANK YOU

Dear Church Family,

Thank you so much for the Christmas gift bag. I received at Christmas many useful things and goodies. It was great to see Pat and Tommy (Clements) and so nice to be remembered.

Love and Blessings to all,
Kathleen McGinnis

Thank you so much for the gift bag for dad (Dewey). It was so thoughtful. I cover dad's lap every morning when he sits in his chair to drink his coffee. I appreciate you continuing to think of him.

God Bless You!

WORKING TOGETHER

There's a wonderful story about Jimmy Durante, one of the great entertainers of a generation ago. He was asked to be a part of a show for WW II veterans. He told them his schedule was very busy and he could afford only a few minutes, but if they wouldn't mind his doing on short monologue and immediately leaving for his next appointment, he would come. Of course, the show's director agreed happily.

But when Jimmy got on stage, something interesting happened. He went through the short monologue and then stayed. The applause grew louder and louder and he kept staying. Pretty soon, he had been on fifteen, twenty, then thirty minutes. What happened?

Jimmy answered, "I did have to go, but I can show you the reason I stayed. You can see for yourself if you look on the front row." In the front row were two men, each of whom had lost an arm in the war. One had lost his right arm and the other had lost his left. Together, they were able to clap, and that's exactly what they were doing, loudly and cheerfully.
