“What Happened After the Resurrection?”

Although no single gospel gives an inclusive or definitive account of the resurrection of Jesus or his appearances, there are five points at which all four gospels converge:

1. Attention to the stone that had closed the tomb
2. The linking of the empty tomb tradition and the visit of the women on "the first day of the week;"
3. That the risen Jesus chose first to appear to women (or a woman) and to commission them (her) to proclaim this most important fact to the disciples, including Peter and the other apostles;
4. The prominence of Mary Magdalene;
5. The significance of Jesus folding the linen burial cloth:

Comparison of narratives in the Gospels and Acts

Matthew	Mark	Luke	John	Acts
